GENERAL POLICIES

- Use of the meeting room should be restricted to activities compatible with the library environment. Types of appropriate activities include, but are not limited to, speaker programs, panel discussions, seminars, debates, movies, slide shows, and committee meetings.
- The rooms will be left in the same condition as they were found with the tables and chairs returned to the original set-up. The rooms will be left picked up and all trash shall be placed in garbage bags or other appropriate containers available for that purpose. $25.00 will be held at the time of reservation.
- For all rooms except the reading room two keys will be provided. There is a $5 fee for any key not returned.
- Failure to adhere to any of these rules shall result in prohibition for future use of any room.

It is hereby understood and agreed, if this application is granted, the undersigned will assume all and exclusive responsibility for the preservation of order and the sole and exclusive liability for all injury to persons, and any damage to, or loss of property that may result from this use; and for the due observance of all regulations of the Board of Library Trustees. The organization agrees to indemnify the Law Library Association of St. Louis and hold the same harmless against all claims, demands, damages, costs and expenses including reasonable attorneys' fees for the defense of such claims, arising out of the organization's use of the meeting rooms.
